

Show for expecting moms held at Grand Hotel

Great Expectations, an interactive and entertaining experience exclusively for expecting moms in Delhi was organised at the Grand Hotel by Life Cell International on Saturday. This show encompassed diverse aspects of pregnancy and showcased the new style of living and enjoying pregnancy. It was created with aim of serving the pregnant women an exclusive platform to come together and share their experiences during this changing phase of their life. Eminent doctors from Fortis La Femme were present at the show and were seen interacting with the women on topics related to care during pregnancy, nutrition, how to take care of new born and how to get back in shape after baby's birth.
